Fall tablescapes are about color, texture and warmth

Right now I am loving mixed jewel tone glassware, matte black flatware and of course the rebirth of pampas. We recently curated a beautiful table setting for a client with Neybir and mixed different shades of cream, green, and terra cotta and it evokes fall perfectly in one palette. I also love foraging for décor, think branches with berries, dried grasses, get outside and get creative. – Brianne A Jones, ASID, NCIDQ Brianne Bishop Design, LLC
