

PUBLIC WORKS

A PORTFOLIO OF PUBLIC
SPACES THAT FEEL LIKE HOME.

Designer Brianne Bishop created playful, unexpected, and sophisticated interiors in the public spaces of Avra, a luxury rental building. The color scheme was a mix of warm and cool with some punchy color on banquettes and in seating areas. The goal was to create a surprise around every corner. In the 20th floor lounge area, Bishop created intimate seating areas with eye-level lighting. Upholstery fabric by DesignTex. Flooring and carpet by Shaw Floors. An outdoor terrace area is furnished with tables and chairs from Brown Jordan. Opposite, top: The team used a large-scale mural wallpaper by Phillip Jeffries to bring interest to the entry's soaring walls with ultrahigh ceilings. Opposite, bottom: A striking yellow-and-slate-blue banquette is covered in durable fabric by DesignTex. Flooring by Shaw Floors. All paint throughout by Benjamin Moore. Wallcoverings throughout by Maharam, Pierre Frey, Wolf-Gordon, and Phillip Jeffries.
